INVITATION TO ATTEND

The Unveiling of Professor Graham Brown’s Portrait, The Richard Larkins Prize, and Student Award Presentations

Monday, 2\textsuperscript{nd} May, 4:00 – 6:00pm

Professor Terence O’Brien, Head of Department of Medicine (RMH) and Chair of the Executive of the RMH University Academic Centre, invites you to the unveiling of Professor Graham Brown’s portrait, the presentation of the Richard Larkins Prize awarded to the Top 2010 Honours Student, the Nick Christopher Top-Up Scholarships Awards, and the Graham Brown 2010 Student Best Publication Prize.

Professor Graham Brown previously held the position of James Stewart Professor of Medicine and Head of Department of Medicine (RMH/WH), University of Melbourne from 1999 – 2007 and is currently the Director, Nossal Institute for Global Health, University of Melbourne.

Dr Gillian Dunlop, the artist of Professor Brown’s portrait, is an ENT surgeon and renowned Australian artist whose portrait commissions include the Governor General, Her Excellency, Ms Quentin Bryce, the Governor of NSW, Prof Marie Bashir and the previous Governor of Tasmania, Sir Phillip Bennett. Dr Gillian Dunlop has received the People’s Choice Award, Solon des Refuses 2006 and was an Archibald finalist in 2004, with her artwork held in collections in Australia, USA, UK and Canada.

Date: Monday, 2\textsuperscript{nd} May 2011
Time: 4:00 – 6:00pm
Light refreshments will be available from 4.00pm
Student Awards presentations will commence at 4.15pm, with the unveiling to follow directly after.

Venue: Royal Melbourne Hospital Function and Convention Centre Foyer/Bar Area
Ground Floor, Royal Melbourne Hospital, Grattan Street.

RSVP: Mary Ljubanovic by 29\textsuperscript{th} April. T: 03 8344 5479 / E: mlju@unimelb.edu.au